Mark Bradshaw, owner of The Hideaway Grill and Roadhouse, is an Arizona native. He has been in the bar and restaurant business for over 30 years. After riding his Harley to Cave Creek for 30+ years, he fell in love with the little town and knew he wanted to open up his own place there. So in the fall of '98, Mark opened up his first bar, The Hideaway Grill. It's somewhere bikers can have a place to ride out of the city, have a few drinks, and grab some grub.

Mark met Jim Otoole in 2011. Jim has been in the public adjusting business for over 20 years. After helping Mark, they became good friends and decided to go into business together. They created the Tap Haus in Cave Creek.

Now in 2015, Mark and Jim are remodeling and expanding the Tap Haus as well as renaming it Roadhouse. It features a motorcycle museum, a retail shop for all builders' parts and accessories, and an extended venue including a second stage for bands. Plenty of room for the army that supports the world-famous Hideaway.

When in the area, please stop by and introduce yourself to Mark and Jim. They would love to meet you!
